CIVIL ACTION NO.
1:15-CV-357-WSD-WEJ

ORDER AND FINAL REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendant pro se, Tina M. Sanders, is facing a “Dispossessory Proceeding” in the Magistrate Court of Gwinnett County, Georgia. Defendant seeks to remove that case to this Court and has submitted an Application to Proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP Application”) [1] showing an inability to pay the removal fee at this time. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS the request to proceed in forma pauperis. However, the Court is compelled to remand any action which has been improperly removed; therefore, the undersigned examines this case to determine if removal is proper. Nat’l Parks Conservation Ass’n v. Norton, 324 F.3d 1229, 1240 (11th Cir. 2003) (explaining that federal courts have an obligation to dismiss an action sua sponte if subject matter jurisdiction is lacking).

In the Emergency Action of Removal to Federal Court [1-1], Ms. Sanders indicates that she is a legal resident of Buford, Georgia, and alleges that the state court proceeding violates the United States Constitution. Ms. Sanders attached to that document a “Dispossessory Proceeding” filed in the Magistrate Court of Gwinnett County. (Id. Attach.)

A party who removes a state court case to federal district court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441 must prove that the court possesses “original jurisdiction.” McNutt v. Gen. Motors Acceptance Corp. of Ind., 298 U.S. 178, 189 (1936). Moreover, removal jurisdiction is construed narrowly, with all doubts resolved in favor of remand. See Pacheco de Perez v. AT&T Co., 139 F.3d 1368, 1373 (11th Cir. 1998). The removing party has the burden of demonstrating the propriety of removal, Diaz v. Shepard, 85 F.3d 1502, 1505 (11th Cir. 1996), and federal courts have an obligation to dismiss an action sua sponte if subject matter jurisdiction is lacking, Nat’l Parks Conservation Ass’n v. Norton, 324 F.3d 1229, 1240 (11th Cir. 2003).

Original jurisdiction arises if there is diversity of parties or a federal question. 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a)-(b). However, § 1441(b)(2) bars removal on the basis of diversity if the “defendant[] is a citizen of the State in which [the] action is brought.” Id. § 1441(b). Likewise, unless a “substantial” federal question is presented on the face of the state court complaint, the case does not arise under federal law. Rivet v. Regions

Bank of La., 522 U.S. 470, 475 (1998); Kemp v. Int'l Bus. Machs. Corp., 109 F.3d 708, 712 (11th Cir. 1997). Neither a defendant's answer nor a notice of removal may be used to establish federal question jurisdiction. Gully v. First Nat'l Bank, 299 U.S. 109, 113 (1936); Buice v. Buford Broad., Inc., 553 F. Supp. 388, 389 (N.D. Ga. 1983).

Because Ms. Sanders is a Georgia domiciliary, the Court does not have diversity jurisdiction over this Gwinnett County action. Likewise, the "Dispossessory Proceeding" indicates no federal question. Plaintiff, U.S. Bank National Association, cannot be subjected to federal jurisdiction after having filed for eviction on state law grounds in state court. Accordingly, because defendant has failed to demonstrate any lawful basis for removal of the action, the undersigned RECOMMENDS that this action be REMANDED to the Magistrate Court of Gwinnett County pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(c)(4).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the undersigned GRANTS the Application to Proceed in District Court without Prepaying Fees or Costs [1] for the limited purpose of remand, and RECOMMENDS this case be REMANDED to the Magistrate Court of Gwinnett County, Georgia.

The Clerk is DIRECTED to terminate the reference to the undersigned Magistrate Judge.

SO ORDERED AND RECOMMENDED, this 13th day of February, 2015.

WALTER E. JOHNSON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
